

Diritto internazionale
e conflitti armati

Centre for European Legal Studies on Macro-Crime
Department of Law
University of Ferrara

ENHANCING ENVIRONMENTAL PROTECTION IN ARMED CONFLICTS

19 September 2022, 15:00-18:00 CET
via Google Meet:
meet.google.com/qqy-orrk-nvi

Session I: Protecting the environment during and after hostilities

Chair: Micaela Frulli (University of Florence)

Keynote Speech: The ILC work on the protection of the environment in relation to armed conflicts
Marja Lehto (Ministry for Foreign Affairs of Finland)

The interplay among international humanitarian law, human rights law and international environmental law
Marco Pertile (University of Trento)

The role of non-State armed groups in protecting the environment
Sandra Krähenmann (Geneva Call)

Session II: Addressing post-conflict environmental damage

Chair: Francesco Salerno (University of Ferrara)

Keynote Speech: Accountability for environmental damage in armed conflicts: the standpoint of the ICC
Rosario Salvatore Aitala (International Criminal Court)

Fact-finding and evidence of environmental harm in international criminal justice
Matthew Gillett (University of Essex)

Prosecuting environmental harm as a domestic offence in Ukrainian law
Khrystyna Gavrysh (University of Ferrara)

Addressing environmental damage in peace settlements
Marie-Claire Cordonier Segger (University of Waterloo)

Scientific Committee: Alessandra Annoni (University of Ferrara), Federica Favuzza (University of Milan), Marco Longobardo (University of Westminster), Marina Mancini (Mediterranean University of Reggio Calabria)

For further information, please contact: dicailac@gmail.com